

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

DEDHAM RECORDS.

CHURCH AND CEMETERY.

INTRODUCTION.

Two years ago, upon the celebration of the 250th anniversary of the incorporation of the Town, we published our first volume of Dedham Records from the Town Clerk's books of Births, Marriages, and Deaths—1635 to 1845. The records of the various churches in town contain a large quantity of valuable material not found upon the Town Clerk's records. These church records have been open to the public, but they were scattered throughout the several parishes, were not indexed, and few people have had the time or the patience to attempt to search these books and decipher their contents.

In my report to the town, upon the publication of the first volume, I called attention to the records in the several parishes, and their importance to the town, together with the fact that, in many cases, these books were kept in the private houses of their custodians, in great danger of being lost or destroyed, and that steps should be taken to enable the town to have the benefit of the important information which they contain.

At the last annual meeting, the town made an appropriation toward printing a second volume, which should contain records from the different parishes in town, of public interest, or supplementary to the first volume.

Acting under the authority thus given, I have prepared and herewith present this second volume. It contains the records of public interest from four churches and three cemeteries, but only the first book of the First Church has been taken entire ; from the other books the covenants, votes and general church records have been omitted, as outside the scope of this work.

The First Book of the First Church is a very important document, and must be recognized as a valuable contribution to the ecclesiastical history of the early New England days. It contains a minute account of the formation of this Church, 1638, the method of selecting a pastor, and other officers, and the process by which they were installed into these important offices, and was written by the hand of Rev. John Allin, the first pastor, and covers nearly the entire period of his ministry.

Mr. Allin was accustomed to use many signs and abbreviations, most of which will be readily understood, but I have thought it might be convenient to interpret a few of them, viz.:

Χ, or Χ ^t —Christ.	Χ ^{an} —Christian.	ΧΧ—Church.
1 ^t , or 1—First.	p'—Per, or pro.	D'—Doctrine.
Ap.—Apostle.	S ^{ts} —Saints.	its'—itself.

So little time before 1845 was covered by the records of the other churches in town, that it seemed inexpedient to make any use of them here.

Following the church records will be found the inscriptions upon the tomb-stones in our three old cemeteries, a valuable record, but, though written in stone, they are far less permanent than one would at first imagine, for stones crumble and break, are frequently neglected and allowed to be covered with moss, and with the action of the elements some become unreadable, others disappear altogether, hence the importance of preserving in print these records. But with these, as with the church records, as a rule, only those items dated prior to 1845 have been taken. But one exception to this limitation has been made; that is with reference to the portion of the First Parish cemetery, which we call the "Ancient Burial Place." All the inscriptions in the Ancient Burial Place were copied, with much care, by Rev. CARLOS SLAFTER, A. M., a resident member of the Dedham Historical Society, and presented by him to that Society at its meeting in October last, and at the request of the Editor, and with the approval of Mr. Slafter, the Society voted that the whole matter thus furnished by him might be published in this volume.

On the part of Mr. Slafter this self-imposed task was wholly a labor of love, but it is a work which certainly will be appreciated by many.

The index has been constructed upon the same plan as that adopted in the first volume. Names spelled several different ways have all been combined under one of the common methods thereof. Such names as Ann, Anna, Annie, etc., all combined under one form. Sarah and Sally are combined; also Catharine and Katherine, etc., etc. On page 167 is the record of the death of two nameless soldiers on their way to New York.

Following this introduction will be found two sketches which it seems appropriate should appear in these pages. The first is a sketch of the woman to whose memory this book is dedicated, with an account of her antecedents. The second, which immediately precedes the first book of the First Church, is a sketch of the author of that book, the first pastor. This sketch has been prepared by Prof. Wm. F. ALLEN, A.M., of Madison, Wisconsin, a corresponding member of our Historical Society, and one familiar with the history of the Allen family, and contains some of the results of the investigation recently made in England, through the agency of an experienced genealogist and antiquarian, by Prof. Allen and others, descendants of James Allen, of Medfield, in co-operation with our Historical Society.

The entire transcript from the church records, together with the index, has been prepared by Miss SARAH B. BAKER, a resident member of our Historical Society, who made also the transcript from the Town Clerk's records for the first volume of Dedham Records. Her experience and interest in this kind of work, and her skill in reading ancient manuscript, have made her services very valuable to the Editor.

For the ready response, which the several churches made to the request of the editor for the use of their records for this work, a grateful acknowledgment is here given.

As mentioned at the beginning of this introduction, the first volume of Dedham Records was published upon the 250th anniversary of the town. Now, this second volume, composed as it is so largely of the church records, we are glad to be able to publish upon the 250th anniversary of the gathering of the First Church in Dedham.

The proof of the church records has been read by the editor with the original MSS.

Hannah Shuttleworth

(AUTOGRAPH.]

A SKETCH BY THE EDITOR.

HANNAH SHUTTLEWORTH, to whose memory the Town dedicates this volume, was born in Dedham, Feb. 16, 1800. Here her entire life was spent. She died on the 22d of February, 1886, and was buried in the ancient burial place. On page 286 will be found the inscription upon her tombstone. In her family relations she was thoroughly identified with the own and with many of the earliest settlers. In tracing our genealogy we are apt to follow only the male line, and assume that there is more of the blood in our veins of the earliest person found bearing our surname than of our equally ancient ancestors in the female line of ascent, while the fact is that each of our numerous ancestors through all the various lines have contributed as truly to our existence as the one whose name we bear. It is interesting to know from how many of our first generation of settlers Hannah Shuttleworth descended. For that purpose we must go back through the various lines and trace them down to the subject of this sketch.

EDWARD RICHARDS was born in England about 1610-15, and married here Sept. 10, 1638, SUSAN HUNTING, the sister of Elder John Hunting. John Richards, son of Edward and Susan, was born July 1, 1641, and married, Oct. 1, 1672, Mary Colburn. John Richards, son of John and Mary, was born July 20, 1673, and married Judeth Fairbanks. Timothy Richards, son of John and Judeth, was born Oct. 2, 1705, and married Mary Kingsbury. Timothy Richards, son of Timothy and Mary, was born April 23, 1752, and married Sarah Edson of Bridgewater. Sukey Richards, daughter of Timothy and Sarah, was born April 16, 1779, and married, Feb. 1, 1798, Jeremiah Shuttleworth. These are the parents of Hannah Shuttleworth.

NATHANIEL COLBURN was born in England, and married here July 25, 1639, Prescilla Clarke. Mary Colburn, daughter of Nathaniel and Prescilla, was born Jan. 21, 1651, and married John Richards, as above mentioned.

Eleazer Kingsbury, son of JOSEPH and MILLICENT KINGSBURY, was born May 17, 1645, and married, Oct. 30, 1676, Esther Judson. Noah Kingsbury, son of Eleazer and Esther, was born Sept. 16, 1694, and married, Sept. 30, 1718, at Roxbury, Mehitable Morey, daughter of Thomas Morey. Mary Kingsbury, daughter of Noah and Mehitabel, was born April 12, 1725, and married Timothy Richards, as mentioned above.

SAMUEL JUDSON married, Oct. 6, 1646, MARY ALDRIDGE (widow of Henry). Esther, their daughter, was born June 10, 1654, and married Eleazer Kingsbury, as above mentioned.

NATHANIEL WHITING married, Nov. 4, 1643, Hannah Dwight. She was the daughter of JOHN DWIGHT, and was born in England. Samuel Whiting, son of Nathaniel and Hannah, was born Dec. 20, 1649, and married, Nov. 23, 1676, Sarah Metcalf. Jeremiah Whiting, son of Samuel and Sarah, was born April 12, 1695, and married, Nov. 13, 1717, Ruth Wells. Abigail Whiting, daughter of Jeremiah and Ruth, was baptized Feb. 20, 1726, and married, Oct. 8, 1744, Samuel Shuttleworth. Jeremiah Shuttleworth, son of Samuel and Abigail, was born Dec. 24, 1760, and married Sukey Richards, as mentioned above.

THOMAS METCALF, son of MICHAEL and SARAH METCALF, was born in England, Dec. 27, 1629, and married here, Sept. 12, 1655 (or 56), Sarah Paige. Sarah Metcalf, daughter of Deacon Thomas and Sarah, was born March 3, 1658, and married Samuel Whiting, as mentioned above.

The first mention of the Shuttleworth family in Dedham is the record of the marriage of Vincent Shuttleworth and Elizabeth Leonard, Feb. 18th, 1677-8. They seem to have settled at once in Medfield. Their oldest child, Benjamin, was born Feb. 19, 1678-9.

Benjamin Shuttleworth lived for a time in Stonington, Conn., and the church records of that place show the baptism of two children of Benjamin and Sarah Shuttleworth. He soon, however, returned to this vicinity, and settled in Wrentham, where the records show the births of numerous children, one of whom, Samuel Shuttleworth, was born July 17, 1721, and removed to Dedham, where he was assessed in 1742, and in 1744 married Abigail Whiting, as mentioned above.

The Shuttleworth family was intimately connected with the Ames family. Dr. Nathaniel Ames, son of the Almanac Maker, and brother of Fisher Ames, married Meletiah Shuttleworth, the sister of Jeremiah, while Rev. Samuel Shuttleworth, the brother of Jeremiah, married Deborah Ames, the sister of Nathaniel and Fisher. Jeremiah Shuttleworth was the first Postmaster of Dedham, and the original letter, dated, "General Postoffice, Philadelphia, Aug. 12, 1794," from Timothy Pickering, the Postmaster-General, addressed to him, stating that it was judged proper that a postoffice should be established at Dedham, Massachusetts, and tendering him the office of Deputy Postmaster of that place, together with the commission, dated Sept. 11, 1794, are to be found in the archives of the Dedham Historical Society. Upon his bond appeared the names of Nathaniel and Fisher Ames as sureties. Dr. Nathaniel Ames dying without issue, devised his estate to Hannah Shuttleworth.

Her manner of life was simple. She was accustomed to give much to the poor, but in her almsgiving she heeded the Divine injunction, "Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth." She was a close observer of events, and her mind was a treasury of local history. If she could have written the reminiscences of her day and generation, they would have made a most entertaining book.

By her will she devised to the Dedham Historical Society her house and lot in the centre of the Village, and $10,000 with which to erect a society building thereon. With this legacy a substantial brick building of Colonial style of architecture, with tasteful interior decorations, has been erected upon the spot occupied by her for so many years. She understood perfectly the terms upon which the late John Bullard had given $10,000 to the Dedham Public Library, the principal of which could only be used for the erection of a suitable library building when a like sum was obtained elsewhere, and she gave the needed amount, and a handsome stone library building has been erected. Then after remembering her relations, all distant, and a few faithful friends, she bequeathed the remainder of her estate, amounting to $30,000, to the Town of Dedham, to aid the worthy poor, the principal to be always preserved and known as the "Shuttleworth Fund."

No picture was taken of her while living, and with her death the likeness of that face, so full of character, would have vanished forever had it not been literally snatched from the tomb. After her death the thought suddenly flashed across my mind that, as her friend and the executor of her will, I should do something at once to perpetuate the countenance of one whose name was destined to be remembered as long as the name of the town, and consequently the morning following her funeral, a cold, blustering February day, Gariboldi, the statuary manufacturer, was summoned from Boston, and inside the receiving-tomb a plaster cast of her face was taken, and from this alone, with the descriptions which a few friends who knew her best could furnish, Miss Annie R. Slafter, of Dedham, made the crayon portrait which now hangs in the place of honor over the great mantel in our Historical Society Rooms. The task assigned to the artist was a difficult one, but she has accomplished it in a manner which far exceeded our expectations. It certainly is a good likeness of our munificent benefactor. From this portrait the heliotype which embellishes this volume has been taken.

Surely Hannah Shuttleworth deserves a permanent memorial to her memory, but the most suitable memorial, as well as the most enduring, will be the gratitude in the hearts and the praise upon the lips of our people, who, from generation to generation, shall receive entertainment and instruction from our literary institutions—to the increased facilities of which she so liberally contributed—or shall be the recipients of the fund which her bounty has provided.

SKETCH OF JOHN ALLIN.

BY WILLIAM F. ALLEN, A. M.,

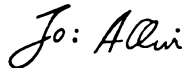

PROFESSOR OF HISTORY IN UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN.

John Allin was born, probably early in 1597, at Colby, a village in Norfolk, England, a few miles northeast of Norwich. He was baptised May 22. His father was Reginald Allin, a man of considerable property, called "yeoman" in his will, but in another document "gentleman"; he was probably what we should call a rich farmer. John was the eighth of fifteen children, and appears to have been the only one who received a university education. He attended school at the neighboring town of North Walsham, and matriculated at Caius College, Cambridge—the great puritan and East Anglian College—April 27, 1612; took the bachelor's degree in 1615, and the master's degree in 1619.

SIGNATURE OF JOHN ALLIN, OF COLBY, NORFOLK, ON TAKING
THE DEGREE OF M. A., AT CAMBRIDGE, 1619.

He was married at Wrentham, Suffolk, Oct. 22, 1622, to Margaret Morse; and here, Oct. 24, 1623, his eldest son, John, was baptised, having been born Oct. 13; at this time he was a resident of Denton, probably the village of that name on the southern border of Norfolk, a few miles from Wrentham. This son, John, graduated at Harvard College, Mass., in the second class (1643); he afterwards returned to England, where he became rector of Rye, Sussex, from which living he was ejected by Charles II. From 1623 to 1637 nothing is known of John Allin. In July, 1637, he settled in Dedham, and the following year was ordained as pastor of the church in that town. In this office he remained until his death, August 26, 1671.

HANDWRITING OF JOHN ALLIN, THE FIRST PASTOR AT DEDHAM, AS WRITTEN BY HIMSELF IN FIRST BOOK OF CHURCH RECORDS.

During the thirty-three years of his ministry he appears to have been one of the most active and respected of the ministers of the Province, and to have been called upon for service in various activities. In 1648 he was chosen to preach the opening sermon before the Synod which met at Cambridge, September 15, for the purpose of forming a system of church government. In 1654 he was appointed an overseer of Harvard College. In 1656 he was appointed upon a commission, with Mr. Norton, Cotton, and others, to consider certain questions propounded by the General Court at Hartford. He was a strong, but not a voluminous writer. The following works by him have been published :

1648. A "Paper marking the just limitations of colonial allegiance and imperial right," "The Voice of the Colony against Parliament."

"A Defence of the Answer made unto the Nine Questions, or Positions, sent from New England against the Reply of that Rev^d Servant of Christ, Mr. John Ball, entitled, Tryall of the New Church Way in New England, and in Old. Wherein, besides a more full opening of Sundry Particulars concerning Liturgies, Power of the Keys, Matter of the Visible Church, &c., is more largely handled that controversy concerning the Catholic Visible Church, tending to clear up the Old Way of Christ in New England Churches.

By John Allin, } Pastor of } Dedham, }
Tho. Shepard, } Cambridge, } in N. E. Lon. 1648.

"Animadversions upon the Antisynodalia Americana, a Treatise Printed in Old England, in the Name of the Dissenting Brethren in the Synod held at Boston, 1662." Cambridge : S. G[reen] and M. J[ohnson] for Hezekiah Usher, 1664, 4^o pp. (6) 82.

Two Sermons. "The Spouse of Christ," delivered at the administration of the Lord's Supper, Aug. 16, 1671, and "The Lord Jesus, His Legacy of Peace," being the last that he preached before his death. Cambridge, 1672.

In the introduction to these two sermons, signed "By some of the hearers of the ensuing sermons," he is spoken of as "a constant, faithful and diligent steward in the House of God, a man of peace and truth, and a burning and shining light." These sermons were re-printed, 1840, in "Dedham Pulpit."

His wife, Margaret, having died, he was married a second time, Nov. 8, 1653, to Katharine, widow of Gov. Dudley. He died Aug. 26, 1671.

[NOTE.—This sketch of Mr. Allin's life differs in some important particulars from that contributed by Dr. A. B. Grosart to the National Biography, edited by Leslie Stephen. The evidence for all the facts will be found in Dr. Lamson's sermon, preached upon the fortieth anniversary of his ordination, and in two short articles in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, for January, 1887, and July, 1888. The year of his birth is given in Mather's Magnalia (iii, 132-3,) as 1596, and this corresponds to the statement of his matriculation at Caius College, as 16, April 27, 1612. But his baptism, May 22, 1597, indicates a later date, which again is confirmed by the statement, in the introduction to the two sermons published the year of his death (Aug. 26, 1671), that he was "in the seventy-fifth year of his age." This testimony, which is of far more weight than that of Mather, points at earliest to the closing months of 1596. If he was born before March 25, 1597, it would still be 1596, according to the reckoning of that time, and in April, 1612, he would have been in his sixteenth year.]

FIRST CHURCH RECORDS.

BOOK I.

[See introduction for interpretation of signs and abbreviations.]

A briefe history of y^e Church of Christ (gathered) in his name, at Dedha' in New England y^e 8th day of y^e 9th month 1638 relating only such passages of p^rvidence & cariages of y^e affairs thereof both in & about y^ei gathering of y^e Church & y^e p^rceedings thereof as were thought most materiall & usefull both for y^e present state of y^t Church to revew upon any occasion & also for future ages to make use of in any case y^t may occur wherein light may be fetched from any examples of things past, no way intending hereby to bind y^e co'science of any to walke by this patterne or to approue of the practise of y^e Church further than it may appear to be according to y^e rule of y^e gospell.

The township of Dedha' consisting of about 30 families residing ther 1637. being co'e together by divine p^rvidence from se'rall pts of England: few of them knowne to one an other before, it was thought meete & agreed upon that all y^e inhabita'ts y^t affected church co'munion or pleased to co'e, should meete e'ry 5th day of y^e weeke at severall houses in order, lovingly to discourse & consult together such questions as might further tend to stablish a peaceable & co'fortable civill society, & p^rpare for spirituall co'munion in a church society, * * * that we might be further acquainted wth y^e (spiritual) tempers & guifts of one an other, & partly y^t we might gaine further light in y^e waies of Christ Kingdome & govern^t of his Church, w^{ch} we thought might much conduce to this end.

The order of w^{ch} meetings was this y^e question being p^rpounded & agreed upon y^e week before, y^e M^r of y^e family wher y^e meeting was, began & concluded wth prayer: & he first speaking as god assisted to y^e question others y^t pleased spake after him as thay saw cause to ad, inlarge or approue w^t was spoken by any or purposly to treat of y^e qu: its': or else to propound any questions pertinent to y^e case or any objections or doubts remaining in any conscience about y^e same, so it were humbly & wth a teachable hart not wth any mind of cavilling or contradicting. w^{ch} order was so well observed as generally all such reasonings were very peaceable, loving, & tender, much to edification.

For y^e subject of thes disputes or conferences divers meetings att first were spent about questions as p'tayned to y^e just, peaceable & comfortable p'ceeding in y^e civill society * * towne.

After w^h questions we p'ceeded to such as more p'p'ly concerned y^e chiefe scope of our meetings, the chiefe of w^h the substance of y^e resolutions thereof wherein y^e company generally consented; because thay lead on & make way to y^e gathering of the church I thought not unmeete to sett downe breifly as follow in order.

1 Question whether such as in y^e judgm^t of charity looke upon one an other as Christians may assemble together, speak & heare y^e w^d, pray & fast, or confer together being out of church order as we were & many unknowne to each other.

Ans. Affiratively That taking one an other for Christians nothing yet appearing to y^e contrary; all Christians by virtue of ther union w^h X^t & one w^h an other have a co'mon right to & use of all such priviledges & spirituall helpers unto edification as naturally flows from y^t union as to justification Adoption &c, so to y^e word prayer & fasting as an helpe ther to & to y^e guifte one of an other for mutuall edification but for instituted priveledges & ordinances thay were to be injoyed only in y^e order instituted by X^t.

q. 2. concerning y^e duties of Christian loue, how far we stood bound therto in our condicion. An: to all such christian & sprituall duties of loue as flows from y^t union w^h X^t & one an other; as to exhort admonish privately comfort, to communicate & im'pue any guift received to mutual edification, to relieue y^e wants of each other &c.

qu. 3. whether having thes priveledges of christian co'munion & being bound to such duties. we may not rest in such a condicion & looke no further. Ans: negatively, we may not, but seeke for a further union & com'union even such as may intereste vs in & convey unto us all y^e ordinances of X^{ty} instituted worship both beca's it is y^e com'and of god y^t whole Christ should be received & submitted unto & so in his kingly office & y^e outward administration of his kingdome, & allso because y^e spirituall condicion of ev'ry X^{ty} is such as stand in need of all instituted ordinances for y^e repaire of y^e s^{ty} & edification of y^e body of X^t Eph. 4.

qu 4. w^t is y^t further & neerer union & co'munion to be sought after for such ends. An. Church co'munion of y^e fellowship of a certaine number of visible saints or belevers agreeing to lue together in spirituall co'munion w^h X & one an other in y^e use of all y^e holy instituted ordinances & worship of y^e gospell. & y^t this is an institution of X in y^e gospell y^t y^e s^{ty} of X should be distributed into p'ticular vissible congregations injoying ther distinct officers &c is clere; Mat 18 where 2 or 3 agre together, & 1 Cor 1. 1 & 16. 2 Phil: 1. 1 Revel 1 y^e 7 X^{ty} of Asia.

q. 5. concerning y^e matter of such a church the p'per matter of such a church is visible belevers or s^{ts}, for as faith itselſe unites to Christ & makes a member of y^e invisible church so such a p^rfeſſion of faith & holynes y^e frute of it as makes it visible makes a man a fitt matter for a visible church. 1 Cor. 1:1 Phil 1. 1 &c 7.

6. That y^e band of this ſociety y^t knitt them together is a mutuall conſent or p^rfeſſion of y^e covenant of graces or an application of y^e covenant of y^e goſpell to * * a number of s^{ts}. wherby thay profeſſing ther faith * * doe lay claime to all y^e grace privileges * . * of y^e goſpell, & promiſe to y^e lord & one unto an other to live together in ſuch co^munion wth y^e lord & one an other according [to] rule of y^e goſpell in ev^ry thing. The ground of w^h covenant was ſhewed from y^e nature of y^e thing * * being no union of many p^rſons into one body y^t can be made wthout mutuall conſent or ſome kind of covenant. 2ly from y^e practice of y^e lord who nev^r took any people unto himſelſe to worſhip him according to his ordinances as a church, but by covenant: as appears in y^e ſtoories of Abrahah' & his family conſtituted a church by covenant Gen 15 & 17. ye people of Iſrael coming out of Egypt Exod: 20 &c. & when y^ei brak y^t covenant this cauſed ther divorce from y^e lord, & when they were reſtored againe in any way of ſolemn reformation it was by renewing this covenant as many examples ſhew. 3ly in y^e new teſtam^t X describes his Church to be ſuch as agree together in his name. Mat 18 & y^e Ap. 2 Cor 9. 13 obſerve y^e forwardnes of y^e X in miniſtering to y^e s^{ts} was one experim^t of ther p^rfeſſed ſubjection ſo y^t y^ei had p^rfeſſed ther ſubjection to y^e goſpell w^h is y^e ſubſtance of this covenant a touch whereof we haue alſo recorded of Tim. in y^e 1 Tim 6. 12.

7 concerning y^e manner of gathering s^{ts} together into coven^t it ought to be ſo ordered as y^e high & ſpiritual ends there may beſt be attained according to rules of Chriſtian prudence ſo y^t y^e co^munion may be ſpiritual edifying & y^e persons knitt firmly in y^e band of loue, y^t alſo y^e ordinances may be kept in purity, & a ſweete co^munion maintained in y^e Churches, it is requiſite y^t p^rfeſſours being ſtrangers to one an other before, meeting fro^m many parts ſhould be well acquainted wth y^e harts and ſtates of one an other—joyne by way of confeſſion & p^rfeſſion of ther faith & y^t this be publiſely teſtified for y^e better union of y^e harts of other X^s unto the'. Butt y^e number & w^t p^rſons ſhould 1^t joine it is not much materiall ſo y^ei be ſuch as are living ſtones; & ſuch as may haue ſome meaſure of faithfull care & diſeerving to keep y^e X pure & alſo be of y^t innocency of life as may invite other s^{ts} more willingly to joine to y^m.

8. it was concluded y^t a Church thus gathered haue from X not only a right to all y^e institutions of y^e goſpell but y^e power of y^e kies wherby ſhe may diſpence y^e ſame to hir me^mbers & doth receive this power immediately from X on whom ſhe depend alone as hir head; for y^e kies were giuen to peter not as an Ap. but as a bel^vr upon y^e confeſſion of his faith. & Paul rebuke y^e cor: even y^e whole X for neglect of y^e kies. & exhort them to proceed by y^e power of y^e Lord; when thay wer mett together.

9. That y^e Church ought to dispence & receive all thes ordinances & this power in such an order as X haue ordained viz by officers rightly elected & ordayned by y^e Church in y^e name of Christ. w^h officers are Pastours, Teachers, rulers, Deacons, & widdowes: yet till y^e X can be furnished w^h them she may depute some guifted to exercise guifts to edification & to see y^t all Church acts be caried in a way of order & decency to edification.

10. Concerning y^e ordinances of X^t comitted to y^e Church to be thus dispensed by hir officers or members in divers meetings the following were treated of: viz: y^e preaching of y^e w^d by way * * office: y^e administration of y^e seales of baptism & * * * supp belonging to y^e offices of pastour & teacher * * * * tion of discipline w^h is a p[']sonall application * * * * way of admonition excommunication absolution & as y^e case require Mat. 18. p[']taining speciall to y^e ruling elders but in co[']mon w^h Teachers 1 Tim 5: 17. Collection for y^e poore & other necessities of y^e X belonging to y^e offices of Deacons. Prophisy w^h is y^e exercise of some speciall guifts of y^e X or some me[']bers thereof approved by y^e X as fitt for publike edification 1 Cor. 14. Singing of psalmes &c 1 Cor. 14. Col. 3. lastly y^e time sett apart for y^e sollemne worship of god w^h was concluded to be one day of 7 by virtue of gods institution in Paradise renewed in y^e 4th com[']andm[']: unto us being y^e first of y^e 7.. caled y^e lords day Revel: 1.

11. Concerning y^e discerning & receiving me[']bers into y^e X to p[']take w^h them in thes ordinances. it was co[']cluded y^t only visible saints or believers were to be received who ought to make ther faith & holynes visible not only by ther baptisme for then papists, heritiques & many visible athists y^t are baptised must be received, not only by a civile restrained life and some religious duties p[']formed: for so many heritiques & other disturbers of y^e peace of y^e X y^t will not stoope to y^e rule of X[']s kingdo[']e might co[']e in, but such as by a p[']fession of an inward worke of faith & grace declared by an holy life sutable therto may p[']suade y^e X to imbrace them w^h such a brotherly love as ought to be amongst s['] in so neere a covenant I Phil 1: 3.4.

12 For y^e duty of ev[']y me[']ber to y^e X thay ev[']y one in generall ought to beare a reverent respect to y^e X & to obay in y^e lord ev[']y ordinance dispenced by hir officers or whole body in y^e name of X according to his rule & 2ly to improve faithfully w[']soev['] light knowledge or other guifts thay have for y^e edification & peace of y^e whole Church. & y^t especially in acts of discipline as in receiving & casting out members & electing officers &c.

Lastly y^t ev[']y member owe unto one an other all duties of brotherly love especially faithfulness to y^e soules of one an other in watching ov[']r each other admonishing & exhorting one an other &c in love wisdome & pittie & for y^e better settling of a body newly gathered & continuance of spirituall & endeared affections of love to be fre & frequent in co'unicating to one an other y^e inward workings & dealings of y^e lord w^h ther soules.

After thes & some other of like nature were discussed other cases of conscience divers were resolved in y^e same way unto y^e time of gathering y^e X & a little after but are not so to this purpose.

Now in y^e interim while thes were in concideration, as soone as we had some tryall of y^e guifts & spiritts of men: & ye winter abated it was moved by me to y^e Pastour of watertowne y^t seeing divers of ther members lived w^h us & m^r Carter one of the' had exercised some good time ther & knew y^e people better than I that therefore it would please ther X to dismisse m^r Carter & such other of ther me'bers as thay judged meete to prepare w^h us such as should be thought fitt for y^e laying of y^e foundation of a church society amonst us. but for some reasons he did not judge it either needfull or according to order to dismisse any but unto a settled church & so refused y^e request. This way & helpe being denied y^e society looked at J. Allin (whom y^e whole towne had invited to y^e towne w^h thoughts of future imploynt in publike worke) to sett upon y^e worke w^h such as might be thought meete. wherupon I at first * * y^e case & worke to m^r Wheelocke desyring his * * & assistance if y^e lord upon opening of our spirituall condicions should so far close our harts together intending after y^t, y^t we 2 should agre upon a 3^d & so 3 agree upon a 4th &c till we might find a competent number but upon y^e tryall made of y^t way we found it a very slow way & allso y^t we should [need] y^e helpe of many spiritts to discerne & judge of y^e fittnes & unfittnes of ev'ry one: & so we agreed to gather to * * about 8 p'sons more whome we had best hopes of for soundnes of grace & meete guifts for such a worke & then after solemne invocations & humiliation of ourselves before y^e lord y^t search all harts: ev'ry one to open ther condicions & declare y^e workings of god in ther soules & so y^e whole company approue or leaue out as the lord should guid us to judge of ev'ry ones condicions or fittnes for y^e worke. & accordingly we invited into us 1^t a 3^d person & by mutuall co'sent a 4 &c till we were 10. then setting apart a day of sollemne fasting & prayer among ourselues to humble & p'pare our harts to draw so nigh y^e lord & to seeke direction from him to walke by his rule in building such an house to himselfe. we tooke an other day after it to open ev'ry one his spirituall condicion to y^e rest, relating y^e manner of our conversion to god & y^e lords following p'ceedings in our soules w^h p'sent apprehensions of gods loue or want therof. w^h being done we all agreed on thes co'clusions. 1 That in looke[ing] out fitt mater for y^e foundation of a X we should resp[ect] y^e soundnes of grace aboue all things so fare as we can discerne the same 2ly amonst such to respect 2 things very desyrable in y^e beginning viz: 1 a spiritt of wisdome & discerning to keepe y^e X pure in y^e adding of members unto it. 2ly such meekenes, amiablenes of spiritt & innocency of life as might win y^e loue & desyres of all godly soules to come unto y^e church cherfully. 2ly we concluded that ev'ry one should goe forth & leaue themselues & ther case to the scanning of y^e rest, who did mutually p^rmise to be faithfull & impartiall in [giving] ther judgm^t on ev[']ry ones case as thay conceiued & so informe y^e company of any sin or offences that any knew to be in any such p^rson so to be tried. 3ly that ev[']ry one laying aside all ambitious desyres of being taken in to y^e worke, and o[']vr much bashfullnes in refusing the same should willingly submitt themselues to y^e judgm^t of y^e whole company to be taken, or left or ordered, by y^e rule of y^e gospell, as to y^e call & voice of god.

Thes things agreed upo['] every one went out in ther order & ther cases being scanned were caled in againe y^e issue was this that J. Allin, Ralph Wheelocke, John Luson, John Frayry, Eleaser Lusher & Robt Hindall were by generall consent agreed upon & called to p^rceed in preparing thems['] & setting thems['] apart for such a worke. Mr Edward Allin in regard to some offences w^h y^e co[']p^any could not at p^rsent clere up was desyred to waite till further consideration. Anthony Fisher by his rash cariage & speaches sauoring of selfe confidence &c had giuen some offence & y^e company thought it meete to seeke y^e humbling & tryall of his spiritt w^h some serious admonition from y^e lord. Joseph Kinsbury also though good hon * * of him in y^e maine yet by y^e information * * company was very zealous of him y^t he was too much addicted to y^e world & so thought meete to require his answeere to y^e p^rticulers & deale further in his case as it should require: in his answeere he clered some things to satisfaction in some others y^e company could not see his innocency but partly to helpe him to see & p^rvent his danger of faling therein, & partly to try his spiritt how it would submitt to an ordinance thay left a gentle exhortation w^h him to consider of. Thomas Morse was thought by y^e company to be so darke & unsatisfying in respect of y^e worke of grace that though his life was innocent in respect of men yet thay had not grounds to imbrace him into this society except thay should see further & so declared unto him.

After this we had many meetings all y^e 10 persons co[']bining together sometimes spending y^e time in fasting & prayer exercising y^e guifts of prayer in ev[']ry one at ther seasons & trying out y^e cases of thos 4 persons not formerly resolved upon, endeavouring by inquiry, observation, & hearing ther further answers to discover y^e mind of god concerning the['] either by clering up ther cases to satisfaction, or by following home admonitions from y^e lord & meanes of further conviction as ther cases required y^t we might see how thay would be humbled & moved further to seeke y^e lord.

After some time spent this way y^e lord caried us on in this manner m^r Edw: Allins case required some testimonies w^h we could not spedily come unto but waited for y^e coming of friends from England & so his case was y^e longer yet, we came to satisfaction & approved him for y^e worke.

Anthony Fisher after some meetings was brought to see & acknowledge his failings in cariage of hims[']: but y^e pride & haight of his spiritt wher w^h he was charged as y^e roote of it w^h especially we endeavoured to haue him see & be humbled for; that he could not see nor be brought unto by many meetings & following home of y^e meanes of conviction upon him, but at last y^e lord by some p^rminent scriptures alleged w^h did impute such effects to pride as y^e cause of them did 1 so convince him & in an other meeting humbled him as y^t y^e company hoped well & tooke good satisfaction & w^h some exhortations to seeke earnestly for y^e pardon & healing of thos evils & to keepe a dillige^t watch over his hart we approved him as one for y^e foundation of y^e X. Joseph Kingsbury remaining stiffe & unhumbled & not elering hims^r to satisfaction neither being zelous of his hart in respect of thos evils we feared in him remained long under y^e admonition of y^e co^pany but at last when we desyred to bring of things to some conclusion & desyred to know y^e mind of god about him y^e lord left him, w^hout any p^rvocation therto, unto such a distempered passionate flying out upon one of y^e company whom y^e lord had use^d of to follow home things close upon him & y^t to charge him in a matter of injustice wherin we could generally clere him, th^{at} we then saw evedently such an unsubdued spiritt to y^e lord * * * his ordinance faithfully used: that we concluded * * * of y^e mind of god we should take him in but then gave him wholly o^{vr}, & left him to y^e judgm^t of y^e X when it should be gathered.

Thomas morsse, also not being able to hould forth any thing y^t might p^rsuaide y^e company of a worke of saving grace but restraining power &c, was also left to y^e further tryall of y^e X gathered.

It is here to be reme^bred y^t we apprehending y^e great waight of y^e worke & our great weaknes & insufficiency therto: & finding how slowly we could p^rceed in thes cases w^h satisfaction to our consciences, we did expect & much indeavoured y^e guidance & helpe of m^r Jo. Phillips who came o^{vr} that summer w^h some godly company & had bene invited to this plantation by letters formerly having therfore hopes from him of obtaying he was much desyred in y^e 1st beginning. wherupon he delaying his resolution we were so delayed in our conclusion of this worke as y^t y^e summer passed away in expectation of his helpe.

Towards y^e end of Sum^rer we having some experience of Jo. Hunting who came unto us that Summer from England & some of us knowing him before & having very good testimony of him from others we agreed to make tryall whether he might not be found meete for this worke & be willing therto; in both w^h we found y^t encouragem^t y^t he also came in amongst us into society.

This also is to be noted that when we wer come to y^e number of 7 app^ued for y^e worke by y^e satisfaction we tooke of m^r Edward Alline: then by generall agre^mt in a meeting or conference of y^e whole towne we p^rpounded unto them publikely. That we desyring all y^e light y^t we could for y^e satisfaction of our selves in chosing fitt matter for y^e foundation of y^e X. & also desyring not to entertaine any y^t might be a stumbling blocke to any of y^e godly in the towne w^h may discourage them from joyning to y^e X. therfor having so farr as we yet saw approved such & such (naming them p^rticularly) for this worke we now desyred them all to deale faithfully w^h us, w^h y^e cause of X, & w^h ther owne future good, & if thay had any offences or greivances in ther spiritts from any of us & knew any just cause w^h might moue us to leaue out any that now thay would faithfully & plainely deale w^h such an one 1^t in private & if thay had not full satisfaction then to acquaint our co'pany w^h y^e same, naming a time & place wherin we would be ready to receive information from them. This motion was lovingly accepted of the towne The issue was y^t nothing was spoken in private to any of us, but when y^e day apointed came Ther appeared M^r Daulton who in his owne name & partly in y^e name of y^e church of Water towne objected some greivances & offences taken * * * them against m^r Edward Allin who also I sho * * * clered up things to satisfaction was joyned unto us) y^e offences seemed to arise from some neglect not only of that church when he lived ther but of church com'union its' & y^e ordinances of Christ too long a time w^h some p'ticular cariages towerds y^t X. but he having given his answers & declaring y^e grounds & reasons therof as he had done before in such things unto y^e co'pany m^r Daulton p'fessed himselfe satisfied & testified also in y^e name of his bretheren of watertowne that though ther had bene offences taken yet thay did frely lay them all downe & he should no more heare of the' except he should giue new occasions thereof. The company desyred of m^r Daulton y^t ther might be a full clering up of things before we p'ceeded in y^e worke if any thing yet remained w^h him or any others he knew of y^t no distast might remaine after ward, he p'fessing full satisfaction departed.

Allso Francis Astye made knowne some offences & distast y^t had beene betwene M^r Edw: Allin & him formerly & desyred reconciliation w^h him: w^h was also brought to a comfortable issue & satisfaction both to y^e partys & to y^e co'pany. Things being thus far clered up in respect of y^e co'pany being now 8 p'sons we spent divers meetings in y^e more p'ticular scanning of divers questions y^t concerned y^e right constitution of a church. of y^e nature of y^e covenant & how far necessary w^h other qu: of like nature: wherunto we had y^e longer time by y^e delays of M^r Philips who being caled divers waies could not spedily resolute but at length upon waighty reasons co'cerning y^e publike service of y^e church & foundation of y^e colledge he was so far p'suaded to attend to y^e call of Cambridge y^t we saw no p'sent hopes of him & so about y^e begining of October came to resolutions to cast ourselues upon y^e lord & venture w^h such helpe as he should afford rather then to delay so great & needfull a worke any longer: wherupon we resolved againe to seeke y^e lord in sollemn manner & to make a further scrutiny or triall of ourselues in y^e same manner we did formerly & if it appered y^t we could w^h co'fortable satisfaction find a convenient number y^t could close together w^h y^t persuasion of y^e integryty of all & w^h y^t brotherly loue w^h was meete then p'sently to p'ceed unto sollemn p'fession & covenant together: now upon y^e 2^d tryall of ourselues we joined unto us Jo. Hunting who had beene w^h us in some conferencies before & given us some good tast of his spirit & guifts. but desyring y^e rest of y^e co'pany to make a new relation of y^e dealings of god w^h them & how thay had found y^e lord w^h them in y^e p^rparations of thems' to this worke of y^e lord hitherto. & also desyring to scann & seeke satisfaction in any offences discovered by any since we wer approved partly to give satisfaction to Jo. Hunting newly co'e to us & partly for our more clere p^rceedings in this worke. In this way of tryall I say some new objections were made against Edw: Allin w^h yet at last were satisfied & he still joynd to y^e company. And further offences arising against Antony Fisher w^h could not be clered to y^e satisfaction of y^e p^rties offended not to y^e co'pany * * * scruples arising in divers minds of y^e co'pany we were generally so unsatisfied concerning him y^t we wholly left him out of y^e worke for y^e p^rsent & desired him to be content to waite till y^e X was gathered & then to give further satisfaction.

The rest of y^e company (some few scruples except w^h arose about one or 2) were continued w^h y^e same approbation of all as before. by thes things so far as we could see y^e mind of god: Thes 8 p^rsons Jo: Allin. Ralph Wheelocke. Edw: Allin. Jo: Luson. Jo Frayry. Jo: Hunting. Eleasar Lusher: & Robt: Hindsdall wer sett a part by y^e lord for this service who therfore endeavoured now in a more speciall manner to p^rpare the'selues to y^e lord & to close w^h one an other in brotherly loue & unity. of judgmen^t & affection. to w^h end we sett apart one day in speciall manner to declare all our judgm^{ts} upon all y^e heads of Christian religion, & to declare & testifie how we found our harts inclined by y^e lord to y^e loue of one an other. wherin one beginning to speake of one point of religion ev^ry one in order spake ther thoughts of y^e same & so of a 2^d & 3^d &c: wherin we found a sweete consent of judgm^t in substance in all points however some few expressions wer not so clere but being opened agreed in one sence: & ev^ry one testified that thay found ther harts well p^rsueded of y^e integryty of ev^ry person & ther loue truly inclined & increasing towerds each other.

The lord thus far cleering up our way before us we agreed upon y^e 8th day of y^e 9th month 1638 to make our publike p^rfession & enter into sollem'e covenant w^h y^e lord & one an other giving notice to y^e majestrates & by letters unto y^e severall churches of this our purpose y^t we might injoy not only y^e countenance & encouragm^t of y^e majestrates therein but also y^e advice & councill of y^e Churches in so waightly a worke y^t nothing might be done therin against y^e rule of y^e gospell so far as by any advice we could receive helpe: but in giving notice to y^e gov^rnour herof we understood by some y^t y^e generall court had ordained y^t no churches should be gathered w^hout y^e advice of other churches, w^h we conceived might be p^rjudiciall to the liberty of gods people & some seeds of usurpation upon liberties of y^e gospell:* wherfore we desyred y^e Govr:

*March 3 1635-6 the Gen. Court passed the following order: Forasmuch as it hath bene found by sad experience, that much trouble and disturbance hath happened both to the church & civill state by the officers & members of some churches, w^h have bene gathered within the limitts of this jurisdic^{con} in a vndue manner, & not with such publike approba^{con} as were meete, it is therefore ordered that all p^rsons are to take notice that this Court doeth not, nor will hereafter, approue of any such companies of men as shall hence-to informe us of y^t law & the true intent therof: which he p^rfessed was only this y^t y^e court or law inacted did no way intend to abridge such a liberty of gathering into X fellowship privately as if it were unlawfull or as if such a X were not a true X rightly gathered. but y^t y^e scope was this y^t if any people of unsound judgm^t or eroneous way &c should privately sett up X amonst them y^e com[']onweith would not so approve them as to com[']unicate y^t fredome & other priviledges unto them w^h y^t did unto others or p^rtect them in ther gov[']rm^t if thay saw ther way dangerous to the publike peace. w^h answer gave us satisfaction in y^t scruple. The majistrate giuing us all incur * * * in our intentions we sent our letters unto y^e churches * * * thes tounes following.

To y^e Rev[']r^d elders & y^e brethere' of y^e Churches of y^e lord Jesus Gathered together in his name at Roxbury Boston &c.

Rev[']r^d & dearely beloved in y^e lord Jesus we whos names are subscribed desyring (in y^e feare of y^e lord & through y^e mercy of our god) to gather to gether into y^e holy fellowship of a church, y^t we may obtaine further com[']union w^h y^e lord, & w^h y^e holy assemblies of his s^t about us, being conscious of our great insufficiency for such a worke & unskillfullnes in y^e waies of y^e lord, doe humbly desyre your presence, advice, & spirituall helpfullnes therin according to god. The time we haue resolved upon is y^e 5th day of y^e Next weeke being y^e 8 day of y^e 9th m. if y^e lord p^rmitt, at w^h time we hope through y^e abundance of your loue y^t neither y^e season of y^e yeare nor y^e rawnes of our new plantation shall frustrate our expectations of your desyred p^rsence & counsell. In y^e meane time desyring earnestly y^e furtherance of your fervent prayers, w^h all due respects & tender loue we com[']end you to y^e lord Jesus & rest.

Yours in y^e lord Jesus: J: Allin R: Wh: &c.

The day before mentioned we agreed generally should be spent in fasting & prayer in publike & sollem[']e manner & for y^e more sollem[']e & orderly p^rformance of y^e duties therof we agreed in this manner y^t 1 m^r R: Wheelocke should begin w^h solem[']e prayer & confession of sin: After him m^r J. Allin to follow 1 w^h solem[']e prayer allso as y^e lord should guide & assist. 2ly by way of exercise of his gifts to speake to y^e assembly w^h he did according to y^e occasion upon y^e last words of y^e 20 vr of y^e 1 ch. of y^e Revel: 3ly conclude againe w^h prayer for a blessing on y^e word spoken & for assistance & guidance of y^e spiritt in y^e following worke to be p^rformed: 4ly that he should begin to make p^rfession both of y^e D['] of faith & of y^e grace of faith or worke therof in hims[']: & then that y^e others in an order agreed upon should follow ev[']ry one testifying ther consent to y^e D['] of faith before p^rfessed & declaring y^e workings of gods grace in ther harts. w^h was accordingly p^rformed.

forth ioyne in any pretended way of church fellowship, without they shall first acquainte the migistrates, & the elders of the great['] p^rte of the churches in this juristic[']con, with their inten[']cons, & have their approba[']con herein. And Further, it is ordered, that noe p^rson, being a member of any churche which shall hereafter be gathered without the approba[']con of the magistrates, & the greater p^rte of the said churches, shalbe admitted to the Freedome of this Com[']onwealthe. 1 Mass Col. Rec. 168.--] ED.

For y^e Profession of y^e D' of faith held forth by John Allin he began w^h certaine reasons of y^e publike p^ression to this effect. Being desyrous to be joined together in covenant w^h y^e lord & one an other div^rs reasons require that we should hold forth a publike p^ression of y^e D' of our faith & of y^e worke of faith in our oune selves, as 1 because as we heard it is y^e office of y^e candlesticke w^h represent y^e ✕ though not to giue light yet to hould forth that light w^h y^e lord hath set into it.

2ly we desyring to take up all y^e ordinances & priuiledges of y^e covenant of grace it is requisite we p^resse that faith wherby we lay claime to y^t covenant & y^e priuiledges in it.

3ly As we shall according to y^e rule of ✕ require y^e p^ression of faith from others y^t desyre to joine unto y^e Church so we judge it equall that we should publikely to them re'der a reson of y^e hope y^t is in us & giue a testimony of y^e grace of ✕ bestowed upon us.

4ly It is our desyre to enjoy y^e loving & brotherly com'union of all y^e churches of ✕ about us & so we thinke it needfull to p^resse y^t faith in publike w^h trough y^e mercy of god we believe * * * may know how far we consent w^h them in ye same * * * of grace & accordingly accept us into ther com'union * * *

Lastly we desyring that this worke may be accomp * * according to y^e rule of y^e gospell haue desyred y^e counsell & helpe of our Rev^d bretheren, & others to helpe us therin & so we doe willingly hold forth before y^e bretheren of y^e churches this our p^ression y^t if thay shall descerne any thing therin or know any thing co'cerning any of us which by the rule of y^e gospell thay can declare unto us as a just impedim^t of this our intended p^reedings, we may, according to our purpose willingly of ourselues (not by any authority of any one or all y^e bretheren Assembled) desist awhile from this our purpose till y^e lord shall be pleased to sett up an house to hims' in this place either by better helpes or by preparing us better for y^e same. thes reasons p^rmisid he made a large p^ression of D' & of y^e worke of grace: w^h is too long to insert y^e substance of y^e articles of faith remaine in private notes w^h were further enlarged in y^e p^ression, but as for y^e p^ression of y^e grace of faith by him & y^e rest ther was no note kept therof & so no account can be given of y^e same. When all had finished ther p^ression m^r J: Allin spake to y^e Assembly to this effect. That as before was said we had declared ours' according to y^t measure of knowledge & grace received in y^e doctrine & worke of faith: & now we did desyre y^t y^e Rev^d & other beloved bretheren of y^e ✕^a assembled would faithfully & plainly declare unto us w^hsoev'r thay saw therin or knew concerning any of us that might justly hinder our purpose in joyning together in y^e covenant of y^e lord to liue in such a spirituall com'union in all his ordinances as y^e gospell required w^h if thay could from any rule of y^e word declare unto us we should be willing to attend to y^e word & rule of y^e lord Jesus & accordingly order ourselues. y^e like request also he made to all y^e people assembled, especially if y^e knew any To w^h speach y^e elders & brethere' of y^e churches having a little conferred ther thoughts, by m^r Madden teacher of y^e X in Dorcester spake to this effect, That thay had nothing to declare from y^e lord that should moue us to desist from our purpose only thay gaue us some loving exhortation in respect of some passages p'fessed by some of y^e bretheren & demanded whether we found our oune harts well p'suaded by experience we had of one an other of y^e integrity of ev'ry one: & whether we found our harts closing together in such brotherly affections as was meete in y^e lord: to w^h answer was returned y^t we had considered & p'pounded y^e same things amongst ours' & ev'ry one p'fessed it was so w^h them towards all & we hopen y^e lord would increase y^e same in us. wherunto the brethren exhorting us did incourage us to p'ceed to our covenant.

m^r J. Allin then faling to prayer for y^e presence of y^e lord w^h them therein & for abundance of y^e spiritt of grace and assistance to help us in keeping such a covenant as might be for y^e honour of y^e lord &c he then publikly read y^e covenant whereof thay had all agreed before. y^e tenour whereof follow.

We whose names are subscribed having found by woefull experience y^e unsteadfastnes of our harts w^h god, & p'nenes to goe astray from his waies (for w^h we desyre to abase & humble ourselues in his p'sence) & now desyring to be joynd forev'r to y^e lord, & to cleaue together in spirituall loue & com'union according to his holy institution y^t we might inj * * in his name such holy helpes as y^e lord Jesus in wisdom and compassion haue ordayned in his gospell for his people therby to lett out himselfe unto them, & to build them up in faith and holynes till he haue p'pared them for everlasting com'union w^h himselfe. We doe therefore in y^e name and p'sence of god, & our lord Jesus Christ, & before his people here assembled solely enter into covenant w^h y^e lord our god p'fessing and acknowledging y^e lord Jesus Christ our blessed redeemer to be ye only priest, p'phett, & king of his church 1 & (through y^e help of his grace) his only meritt we rest upon for our pardon and peace w^h y^e fath his only teaching and righteous govrn^t w^h all y^e blessed ordinances of his kingdome we doe imbrace & submit unto in all things as y^e only rule of our liues: renouncing all our owne righteousnes w^h all y^e Doctrines devises & com'andm^t of men not agreing w^h his holy word. Especially all y^e sup'sticious & tyranous com'ands of Anti X & his adhearents wherin we haue in any kind bene intangled. Professing & p'mising (through y^e helpe of his rich & fre grace) henceforth not to liue unto ourselues but unto y^e lord Jesus who haue bought us w^h his blood avoiding carefully all such things as be offenciue to his majesty and dishonourable to our p'fession of his name, w^h all such dangerous temptations as our sinfull harts are wont to be drawne aside w^hall, in speciall y^e inordinate cares of, & intanglem^t in y^e affaires of this life. Promising & p'fessing also through y^e helpe of y^e lord to liue together in this our holy followship according to ye rule of loue in all holy watchfullnes ov'r each other & faithfull mutuall helpfullnes in y^e waies of god for y^e spirituall and temporall co'fort & good of one an other in y^e lord. And all to y^e setting forth of y^e praise of his rich grace in Christ who haue caled us in his abundant mercy to this holy fellowship w^h his majesty & one w^h another.

This forme of our covenant being publicly read it was demanded by m^r Jo: Allin whether thay all consented therto & y^t y^e would testifie the same by lifting up of hands w^h accordingly was done by all y^e 8 persons named before viz: Jo: Allin. Ralph Wheelock. Edward Allin. Jo: Luson. Jo: Hunting. John Frary. Eleazer Lusher & Robt. Hinsdall.

w^h being done Jo: Allin concluded w^h a prayer y^t y^e lord would accept our desires and purposes in Christ confirme us therin & seale to our covenant & avouch us for his people &c. & so dismissed ye assembly w^h a blessing. y^e elders giving to each of us y^e right hand of fellowship, in token of y^e loving acceptations of us into com'union w^h them in y^e lord.

The church being thus through y^e infinite mercy of y^e lord sett up as a spirituall house to y^e lord Jesus, y^e next day we held a church meeting both to giue thanks to y^e lord for his mercy & to take care y^t according to y^e power of * * * Jesus com'itted unto us, we might see all things * * * * * edification in w^h meetings m^r Jo: Allin was deputed by y^e church to exercise his guifts received ev'ry lords day to y^e edification of y^e X till officers might be chosen to teach by office: ye grounds hereof were 1 Cor: 12: 7, & Ch: 3: 22.

2ly The same J: Allin & in his weakness &c Ralph Whelelocke were deputed to see y^t all things bee done decently & in order in all church meetings both publike, & more private: as to p'pound all X busines see y^t none speake disorderly unseasonably; &c, to p'pound also members to y^e consideration of y^e X, to receiue & admitt them upon y^e consent of y^e X testified &c.

Soon after divers of y^e neighbours expressed ther desyres to be joyned to y^e X. wherefore considering y^e lord Jeses had com'itted unto us y^e kies of his kingdome in his name & according to his rule to open and shutt y^e doores of his house knowing y^e lord is y^e king of s^ua Rev. 1 &c & churches should be churches of s^ua 1 Cor: 1: 1, Phil. 1: 1, & knowing of what waight and consequence it was for y^e p'servation of y^e purity of y^e church & ordinances of X^t: w^h y^e spirituall com'union we had joined ours' in, & y^t brotherly love y^t was meete y^t we should be very watchfull especially in y^e first beginnings of y^e church. being allso weake of judgm^t & of little or no experience in this work, & having yet no officers to co'mit this care unto, for thes reasons y^e X agreed at p'sent to meete once every weeke & besides other occaions to heare y^e p'fessions of such as desyred com'union w^h us, either 1. 2 or more as liberty would serue y^t so we might by joint advice judge y^e better of ev'ry ones case & p'ceed through * * * w^h y^e more safty to y^e soules of such as offered themselves to y^e tryall of y^e church & of y^e Church its'. The manner of our p'ceedings was this after any one had declared his desyres to y^e church he was desired to declare y^e workings of god in his hart & w^t grounds he could declare of his right unto y^e ordinances at least so far as by y^e breathings of his soule after X y^e X might see somew^t in him y^e might p^rswade them to conceiue some true workings of faith & repentance in his soule. After w^{ch} p^rfession of y^e party any one y^e desyred further satisfaction in any p^rticular propounded his questions & tooke his answers. w^{ch} being done y^e party being dismissed every one of y^e ✕ beginning at y^e youngest & so upward declared whether y^e lord p^rswaded his hart to take satisfaction or wth his scruple was y^e remained: wherby all having spoken we collected things together & if any thing in his p^rfession remained doubtfull, or any offence had bene given by his life y^e church agreed to send ther mi^d unto y^e party by such of y^e brethren: either to testifie ther approbation or to giue notice w^{ch} was yet doubtfull to any w^{ch} after repaired to them for further clering of things, or to giue them some loving instructions & admonitions, or exhortations in y^e name of y^e lord as y^e ✕ saw ev^ry case required, & so to see how y^e same would be accepted & improved by ev^ry soule. In this way y^e church continued all y^e winter & beginning of spring till officers were sett up by y^e lord April 24 * * * divers persons were joynd to y^e church & * * * p^rticular p^rfessions of y^e most of them wth notes of y^e churches p^rceedings wth them remaine in private notes. & were too large heere to be inserted: y^e p^rsons joined to y^e ✕ before y^e choise of elders were: Margaret Allin y^e wife of Jo: Allin who gave a clere and plentifull testimony of y^e gracious dealings of y^e lord wth hir.

2ly Henery Philips who appeared to y^e church a tender and broken hearted Christian.

3ly y^e wife of John Luson who after long acquaintance of y^e church wth hir condicion and temptations wherein she appeared to be much humbled & constant in hir affections to y^e lord Jesus y^e ✕ tooke satisfaction in her & received hir.

4ly y^e wife of John Frayry who gaue good satisfaction both in publike & private.

5ly—y^e wife of Joseph Kingsbury who appeared to y^e church a tender harted soule full of feares & temptations, but truly breathing after christ.

6ly John Dwite who after some scruples wherein y^e Church waited a good while for satisfaction y^e gaue good, comfortable satisfaction to y^e ✕.

7ly Robt' Kempe who seemed to y^e ✕ a plaine harted Christian though some objections were moved about his cariage of things in his pt: caling yet thay being clered he was received.

8ly Daniell Fisher who appeared to be a tender harted & hopefull Christian young man: as allso divers of y^e ✕ y^e had long knowne him testified, & so was easily and gladly received.

9ly y^e wife of Eleazer Lusher who after some scruples in respect of some former passages: yet by y^e good use she made of hir afflictions wth ye pore, & of y^e publike ministry wth y^e private dealings of y^e church wth hir &c appeared to y^e church much humbled & to haue much p^rfeted & thriven in y^e waies of god wth a great change in y^e whole frame of hir spiritt & cariage, to y^e great satisfaction of y^e ✕.

10^{thly} y^e wife of John Hunting who notwithstanding some scruples a while sticking in some of y^e church yet at lenth gaue good satisfaction & was received.

The winter being past & having had further tryall & experience of y^e guifts & graces y^t the lord had bestowed on y^e church & being consious of our duty to sett up ev'ry ordinance of christ in his church & of our great need of the same we leaving all other cases for a time y^e church applyed themselues seriously & wholly in ther meetings to sett apart some unto office in y^e name of Christ to dispence y^e holy things of Christ amongst them. After seeking y^e lord by fasting & prayer y^e Church first sett to y^e consideration of a teaching officer and after m^r Jo: Allin was p'pounded allthough ther was a generall desyre of y^e church unto him yet he desyred thay would seriously amongst themselves in his absence frely discusse w^hever any of them might conceiue materiall for or against y^e same & so deliver what y^e lord suggested unto them w^h might either be ground of laying aside the motion or of admonition or advice concerning y^e faithfull discharge of such an office: The church being left to ther consultation about it did frely & fully agree to desyre him unto a teaching office but not so easily whether to y^e office of pastour or teacher: wherein after much reasoning amongst them y^e church desyred him to come in againe & so * * * ther joint desyres y^t he would accept of * * * ther zealous on both * * * & were doubtful to w^h of y^e 2 to call him desyring his advice & helpe therin: who after some acknowledgm^t of ther love & his unfittness to any: declared himselfe indifferet in respect of his owne inclination being ready to attend upon y^e lord & service of his church in w^hsoever y^e lord by them should call unto: but thay pressing to haue his thoughts of ther reasons & some further light y^e nature & p^rper guifts of either office w^h yet was before declared in y^e exercise of y^e fast day. he opening ye point further declared also y^t upon occasion moving y^t question to some reverend bretheren y^e elders of a neighbour church who had some tast of his guift in publike: thay thought it somew^h indifferent w^h way y^e church should take: yet for his owne part waying ther reasons, if he must speake he conceived both his guift to ly more aptly to y^e worke of a pastour & ther reasons to sway y^t way: wherupon y^e whole church were very ready to agre in y^t part & such as had reasoned for y^e other rested very well satisfied.

This being brought to this issue y^e church did now in ther judgm^t remaine satisfied y^t m^r Jo: Allin was in some measure guifted & by p^rvidence p^rvided for y^t place of a pastour & ther harts & affections towerds him therin went so fare as to fixe ther eies upon him to be sett over the church in due time by a sollemne election & ordination if nothing in y^e meane time appeared to y^e contrary.

After this it was p'pounded to y^e church whether thus it were not allso requisite to looke out one ruling elder at least if any such guifts might be found to joine w^h y^e pastour: & it was generally resolved y^t it was an order of christ very usefull & necessary for us to looke after in respect of our duty & covenant to sett up all his ordinances & also in respect of y^e state of y^e church requiring y^e same

2ly it was propounded y^t ev'ry one should haue liberty to p'pound whom thay thought fitted of god for such an office y^e nature wherof had also bene opened in y^e day of y^e fast upon w^{ch} liberty p'pounded severall men were p'pounded by severall brethere': viz: m^r Ralph Wheelocke one of our bretheren. Jo: Hunting also our brother: m^r Thomas Carter also a brother of watertoune was mentioned but some answering y^t y^t church was about to chose him into office ther, we could haue no further thoughts of him: also Jo: Kingsbury a brother of watertowne was p'pounded to conideration: but he being informed therof alledged divers objections & in respect of his infirmity of y^e convulsions & other reasons was not further considered of by y^e church: but divers daies were spent about y^e other 2 in y^e serious waying 1 whether the lord haue bestowed on them graces & guifts meete for y^t office: 2ly comparitively on w^{ch} of the' y^t guift was most & clerest to be seene wherby y^e church might p'ceed in ther choise. in w^{ch} cases when y^e church had ev'ry one p'ticularly spoken ther thoughts w^t thay had observed either for or against each of them, it did appeare y^t y^e judgm^t & harts of y^e greater number were swayed to our brother Jo: Hunting. but divers reasons made y^e church very loath to decline y^e other if y^e church might be satisfied of some co'fortable fittnes of guifts for y^e same: wherin * * * selfe was so sencible of y^e defects y^t he much & oft * * * church to lay doune thoughts of him: so all * * * (church) was very doubtfull therin & when y^e case seemed difficult some moved to chose them both but y^t could not be received: cheifly because y^e church being yett but meanely guifted for y^t office we should deprive ourselues of liberty to take some of more able guifts y^t god might cast in afterward: y^e state of y^e church nor y^e abilities therof suting to haue many in y^t office, another moved y^t 2 might be deputed, to open our case plainely to 2 or 3 of y^e neighbour elders & to take ther advice herin: w^{ch} motion being imbraced m^r Jo: Allin & Eleasar Lusher were deputed to take advice of y^e elders of Roxbury & Dorcester if it might be: w^{ch} accordingly thay did, both p'pounding y^e case in generall whether it were meete for us to venture upon y^e choise of a ruler or stay till god furnished y^e church better: 2ly opening y^e apprehensions w^{ch} y^e church had of y^e 2 br: p'pounded & reasons of ther doubt desyred ther advice in y^t case. To y^e first thay p'swaded w^h many reasons & fro' ther experience to chose one ruler at least affirming y^t thay doubted not but we had amonsts us guifts for y^t office sutable to y^e state of our church. to y^e 2d after divers questions p'pounded about y^e parties & scanning of of reasons p'pounded thay all 3 jointly answered y^t in ther judgm^t y^e lord guided us unto our brother Hunting encouraging to p'ceed therin. This answer w^h y^e reasons therof being delivered to y^e church in y^e next meeting after some further debating & reasoning of y^e case & scanning one scuple y^t was cast in w^{ch} was well clered to y^e satisfaction of all, y^e church generally testified ther consent of judgm^t & p'fession of ther affections towerds Jo: Hunting for

y^e office which being agreed they were both caled in & y^e mind & desyres of y^e church declared to them both, by m^r Jo: Allin who spake to our br: m^r Ralph Wheelocke: declaring how desyrus y^e church had bene to testifie ther love & respect towerds him in this office but y^t y^e lord upon serious waighing of things swaied y^e other way: & so desyred him as we doubted not but he would, to submitt himselfe humbly to y^e will of y^e lord & 2ly y^t he would declare to y^e church how his thoughts & hart stood towerds our br: Hunting for y^t office: to w^{ch} wth much modesty, humility & affection he p^rfessed y^t as he had oft said he knew himselfe so unfitt y^t he marveled y^e X had any thoughts of him & desyred thay would not medle so far in his case: but now as before he did wholly co^sent wth y^e church in ther thoughts towerds our br: Hunting & rejoyce in y^e same, w^{ch} things he declared so humbly & affectionately y^t ye church rejoiced much therin & were more intirely knitt unto him in respect therof. Then he declared to Jo: Hunting how upon serious & oft wayghing & debating of things amonst ourselues: advising wth others judicious & in all seeking y^e lord for direction, y^e lord had guided our thoughts & swaied our desyres towerds him for a ruler in this church, to w^{ch} he answered wth much modesty & feare & trembling & many teares in respect of his owne insufficiency he apprehended for y^e same marveiling we should haue such thoughts of him & c yet in conclusion he said y^t as he had formerly given up himselfe to y^e lord to be used as he should please if it did still appeare this to be y^e will of y^e lord he durst not w^hstand y^e same but submitt himselfe & yield himselfe to be used by y^e lord & his church as thay should see fitt.

Thes things after many meetings being brought to this passe wth one consent & hart in y^e church. we then p^rpounded some things about a fitt time & manner for y^e sollemne accomplishm^t of * * * thoughts in y^e orderly election & ordination of thes bro:

The time being agreed to be on y^e 24th of y^e 2^d month 1639 about the manner of p^rceeding although y^e power of election appeared clerely to be only in y^e church: yet for y^e act of ordination some desyred y^t might be a little discussed, w^{ch} after some reasoning appeared clerly to y^e consciences of all y^e church, in this manner. 1 That ev^ry perticuler Church doth imediately depend upon Christ as her head from whom she receive y^e keies or all power of jurisdiction & upon no other person or church under Christ, seing y^r is no footesteps in y^e gospell for such a subordinacy of churches but contra paule write to corinth & y^e lord Jesus to y^e Churches of Asia reproving e^{ch} of them for suffering any evils amonst them & exhorting them to purge out y^e same. 1 Cor. 5, Rev. 2 & 3. 2ly That ordination is an act of church power & jurisdiction to depute & solely sett apart any in y^e name of christ to office in his church being caled therto as appeare in all such acts done by y^e Ap^s elders & c who were church me^mbers & exercised y^e power of y^e church therin: neither did ev^r any challenge y^e same y^t had no church power to doe it. 3ly That y^e cheife act of y^e church in caling officers was election, this of ordination being but a declaration of y^e same & installing into y^t office: & so y^e power of election being clerely in y^e church Acts 1. & 6. & 14. y^e other allso is in them, wherfore allthough y^e Ap^s being officers in ev^ry church wher thay came by vertue of ther generall caling did w^h y^e presbutery wher ther was any 1 Tim. 4. 14. & as sole officers in y^e church wher ther was none Acts 14. ordaine them elders: yet ther caling seasing, & y^e state of church being as is before declared it was cleere to y^e church that they had a power w^hin themselves of ordaining as well as electing officers. Yet for y^e further clering of things to y^e judgm^t of y^e X & y^t we migh cary so solemne & waightie an act of X power & y^e kingdome of X^t. answerable to y^e nature of it y^e X thought fitt by letter to desyre y^e advice of our revr^d brether^e y^e elders of Roxbury who by ther letters returned confirmed our judgm^t in y^t point y^t y^e power of y^e whole worke did belong to us alone under X^t. & ther counsell was for y^e manner of p^rceeding y^t we should depute some in y^e name of y^e X to p^round to election our ruling elder first as y^e stuard of y^e house of god who allso being elected & ordained might then p^round to y^e X & being elected ordaine y^e pastour unto his office. this answeere being returned to y^e X thay tooke into conideration y^e reasons of ther advice & w^t might be objected against y^e same, & upon deliberation resolved to follow y^t counsell chosing m^r Jo: Allin. m^r Ralph Wheelocke & m^r Edw: Allin to ordaine y^e elder & then y^e 2 last named to joyne w^h y^e elder in ordayning y^e pastour. These things being thus agreed by y^e whole X thay gaue notice by letters unto y^e neighbour churches of our purpose y^t upon y^e 24th day of y^e 2d month according to our duty by y^e power of y^e lord Jesus co'mitted unto us we intended (y^e lord assisting) to sett apart some amogst us unto publike office in y^e X. desyring y^e advice of y^e brethren in any thing wherin we might faile in judgm^t or practice in so waighty a worke.

The day being come we sett it apart as a day of fasting & prayer to seeke y^e lord wherein 1 according to y^e desyre of y^e X our brother Hunting began w^h solemne prayer wherein y^e lord assisted & in — his hart both for matter & affection to y^e * * * of all.

After him y^e intended pastour began w^h prayer & after exercised upon 1 Cor 3: 9 treating in y^e forenoone upon y^e 1^t part of y^e verse & in y^e afternoone on y^e latter part. After w^h exercises and solemne prayer for y^e p^rse'ce of y^e lord w^h his X in y^e soleme worke intended. m^r Jo: Allin 1 putt y^e X in mind of the p^rvidences of y^e lord moving & guiding ther harts to sett ther eies & harts upon our br: Hunting for y^e office of a ruler in this house of god & demanded of them whether yet any thing did appeare y^t might cause them to desist from the same if so to speake frely & faithfully: to which whe' no objection was made: he desyred all y^e revr^d brethren ther present or any other brother p^rsent y^t if thay knew any thing or cause w^h might moue y^e X accordg to y^e rule of y^e gospell to desist from ther purpose thay would frely & faithfully impart the same to y^e church, to w^h when no answeere was made: he desyred y^e same of any p^rson ther p^rsent

w^h when none replied unto, he then declared unto y^e X w^t reverence and obedience was due in y^e lord to such an officer & p'pounding him by name unto y^e X desyred y^t if according to ther former thoughts towards him they did now desyre & elect him unto y^e office of a ruler in y^e church they would testifie the same by lifting up of hands, to w^h answer was made by a full vote of all y^e X testified by holding up of hands. w^h being done he demanded whether they were willing and resolved to p'form towards him all such offices & duties as y^e gospell required at ther hands. to which also they assented by lifting up of hands. Then y^e said m^r Allin turning towards our br: Jo: Hunting declared unto him both y^e passages of gods p'vidence wherby after solemne & oft seeking of god & serious consultations y^e X was lead on to sett ther eies upon him & also how frely & fully y^e X now in y^e name of X had tendered a solemne call unto this office of a ruler in y^e X desyring him therfore to declare unto y^e X how he found y^e lord p'swading his hart to accept of y^e same to w^h w^h much modesty & trembling he answered p'fessing his owne weaknes & unworthynes to such a worke trembling to thinke of it yet after many reluctations in his spiritt when he saw & considered y^e clerenes of his call he durst not but give up himselfe to y^e lord in this or any other service he should call him unto: being also further putt in mind of y^e duties of such an office & demanded whether he would p'mise to y^e lord & his X through his grace to p'forme y^e same, he answered affirmatively.

Then m^r Jo: Allin desired y^e X (seeing y^e lord had caried them along thus far) y^t they would depute some in y^e name of y^e X to sett him apart to that worke by prayer & laying on of hands, propounding y^e p'sons formerly agreed upon vis': Jo: Allin. Ra: Wheelocke. & Edw: Allin y^e X testifying ther desyre y^t they should p'forme y^t act by lifting up of hands. y^e other 2 came into y^e seate wher y^e 2 intended officers were. & so having all 3 laid ther hands upon y^e head of Joh: Hunting * * * w^h solemne prayer to god & y^e lord Jesus king of S^m for his presence blessing & plenty of all needfull guifts & graces upon him fitt for such a worke: & w^h a solemne charge laid upon him to be faithfull & dilligent to fulfill his ministration he added thes or like words In y^e name of y^e lord Jesus & by his power com'itted to his church we doe ordaine thee Jo: Hunting unto y^e office of a ruling elder in this church of X'.

Thes things done he then according to his office p'ceeded to propound things to y^e X about M^r Jo: Allin for a pastour after y^e same ma'ner as is before expressed & after election by a generall vote of y^e Church & an humble acceptation of the same, he w^h y^e other 2 brethren laying on hands w^h solem'e prayer &c in y^e name of X & his Church did ordaine him to y^e office of a pastour in y^e X. all w^h p'ceedings wer caried by him w^h y^t gravity comly order w^hout hesitation & w^h such effectual & apt prayers & exhortations to y^e X & pastour as gaue very sweete testimony to all y^e X & assemble of y^e presence of y^e lord w^h him in thos first frutes of his office. w^h worke being thus by y^e mercy of y^e lord accomplished. y^e elders of other X's present, by m^r Whiting pastour of y^e

The next Lords day The pastour tooke occasion to putt y^e ✕ in mind of ther duty to looke after all such ordinances of ✕ as he now gaue them more full liberty to injoy viz y^e seales of y^e covenant & so exhorted y^e ✕ to bring ther children unbaptised to receive y^t ordinance upon y^e next lords day & to p^rpare themselves for y^e lords supper y^e lords day following. accordingly y^e evening sermon being ended after some instruction & exhortation given to y^e ✕ sutable to y^t ordinance & after soleme prayer to god for a speciall presence & blessing upon y^e same: The Pastour distinctly baptised thes p^rsons following being p^rsented to him by ther parents y^t were me^mbers of y^e ✕. being 5^t of y^e 3rd.

Mary & Sarah y^e daughters of our brother John Dwite.

Isacke Frary y^e sone of our brother John Frary.

Mary and Elizabeth Kingsbury y^e daughters of o^r sister y^e wife of Joseph Kingsbury using only y^e words of institution mat 28.

The next lords day y^e Church having sett apart some time in y^e weeke for examination & p^rparation to such an ordina^ce they came together to y^e lords table: wth ordinance was celebrated in this manner. 1 The pastour after y^e sermon and dismissal of y^e assembly: Inviting y^e Church in y^e name of ✕ unto his table did w^hall giue them an exhortation in y^e same name of ✕^t to such duties as concerned y^e p^rsent ordinance: being not full halfe an houre. after w^h he fell to confession & prayer sutable to y^e time: then consecrating y^e bread wth a short prayer & application of y^e words of institution he brake y^e bread & taking a piece out of the platter sett it towerds y^e rest using y^e words of take & eat, this is my body &c.

After all had receiued he consecrated y^e cup in y^e same man^rer & drinking of it delivered it to y^e next & bad them all drinke of it &c. w^h being finished he concluded wth thankegiuing & then sung a psalme & dismissed y^e ✕ wth a blessing.

This ordinance thus celebrated according to y^e institutioⁿ of ✕^t as neere as could be was very sweete unto all y^e ✕ in generall & specially to one sister who had long bene full of Doubtings &c who was much confirmed & generally all felt ther harts much confirmed in brotherly loue one unto an other.

The officers of a pastour & ruler being sett up in y^e church they attended to y^e desyres of such in y^e towne as sought entrance into y^e church, who when y^ei were both satisfied in y^e judgm^t of charity concerning y^e right of any soule to y^e ordinances & saw offences clered up either by y^e innocency of y^e p^rty apearing or manifestation of repentance thay by y^e ruling elder p^rpounded publikely to y^e church y^e desyres of such p^rsons & after a convenient time if no objections were p^rduced by any of y^e ✕ thay had a time apointed by y^e Ruler to make p^rfession of ther faith unto y^e ✕. & so if no just reason were alleged thay were received, y^e pastour in y^e name of ✕^t demanding of them a p^rfession and p^rmise to submitt

y^{ms}' to ev'ry ordinance of X^t in y^t church, to walke in spirituall co'munion wth X^t & his people therin, & in a way of Christia' loue to y^e X according to y^e rule of y^e gospell, & this being p'fessed he testified in y^e name of X^t his gracious acceptation of them as his s^a & people: & in y^e name of y^e church p'miseing all offices of christian loue & watchfullnes towerds them according to y^e gospell so far as y^e lord should helpe.

THE SOUTH PARISH CHURCH RECORDS.

BOOK I.

This Book belongs to the Church of Christ in Dedham Second Parish And contains in it a Short History of the Settlement of Said Church, Together with Some other Things tho't material to be recorded. June 30th 1736.

N. B. It is my design to procure a New C'hh Book and Transcribe all the material Things in This Book into y^t This not being a Suitable Book for Chh Records.

The Southerly part of Dedham in Conjunction with Some Families in the westerly part of Stoughton having preferred a Petition to the Great and Gen^l Court that They might be erected into a Separate Parish, That so they might maintain the ordinances of the Gospel among them, for the Better accommodation of Themselves and their Children, It was Granted them.

And on December 28th 1734 The parish was Confirmed by the Great & Gen^l Court.

N. B. The South Parish in Dedham was Set off from y^e Town Sep^r 2nd 1728. Confirmed by y^e Gen^l Court Nov^r 1730. The Clapboardtree Parish was then Included, But afterward that People (y^t now make up y^e Clapboardtree Parish) were set back again to y^e Town and Then This Parish Requested to have a meeting house stated and to be confirmed a Parish w^{ch} was on December 28th 1734 as above, and y^e Clapboard Trees Were not made a Parish until y^e 10th of Jan. 1736.

And having Built a meeting House for the worship of God, & Intending as Speedily as they could to Settle an Orthodox minister of the Gospel among them; They did Sometime in November 1735, for that end, vote at a Parish meeting to hear The Two following Gen^t viz^t: The Rev^d Mr. Nicholas Loring of Hull and the Rev^d Mr. Thomas Skinner of Charlestown together with myself, and after hearing us to Choose one of us for their minister.

And accordingly after we had all preached with them They appointed a meeting in order to come to a Choice, which was February 9th 1735-6 at which meeting They Choose me for their Pastor.

And after having taken Such a weighty affair Some Time, into consideration I accepted Their Call, and Gave them an affirmative answer April 25th 1736.

And after This, and Preparatory to my Ordination The People proposed to Set apart a Day for Fasting & Prayer: and accordingly June the 23^d 1736 They observed as a Day of Prayer wth Fasting; and on This Day was the Church Gathered. The Gen^t that assisted in the Work of the Day were These Following viz^t:

The Rev^d Mr. Dexter of Dedham.

The Rev^d Mr. Cotton of Providence.

The Rev^d Mr. Dunbar of Stoughton.

The Rev^d Mr. Payson of Walpole.

[See foot Note.]

I was ordained June 30th, 1736.

The Following Seven Chhs were Sent to to assist in Ordination Viz: The Chh in Medfield, The Chh in Wrentham, The Chh in Needham, The Chh in Dedham old Parish, The Chh in Stoughton, The Chh in Walpole, and the Second-Chh in Roxbury.

The Rev^d Mr. Dunbar begun with Prayer—The Rev^d Mr. Walter Preached From Jn^o 17:10—after w^{ch} The Rev^d Mr. Messenger Prayed—Then The Rev^d Mr. Baxter Gave y^e Charge—The Rev^d Mr. Townsed Prayed after y^e Charge and The Rev^d Mr. Dexter gave y^e Right Hand of Fellowship.

After w^{ch} Two Stanza's and an Half of the 89th Psm, beginning at y^e 19th v. were Sung.

And the Blessing pronounced by me.

DEDHAM SOUTH PRECINCT.

At a Church meeting February 18th 1742-3 Voted—

1. That The Thanks of this Chh be given to Deacon Weight for the Lot of Land He had given the Church—as also to Mr. Benjamin Fairbanks for the Land he had given the Church—To which Service the Three Deacones were Chosen.

2. That the Land Given by y^e Persons before Named, be devoted to the Use of the Ministry, for Fire Wood and Timber as occasion shall require.

[NOTE.—The early part of this book was written by the first minister, the Rev. Thomas Balch. The next record therein, under the title, "The Church's Principles," is a confession of faith agreed upon, and signed by Thomas Balch, Samuel Bullard, John Everett, John Dean, James Fales, Jun^r, Samuel Fuller, William Bacon, Eleazor Fisher, Samuel Holmes, Jeremiah Kingsbury, Ezra Morse, William Everett, Nathaniel Guild, Ebenezer Dean, and Nathaniel Lewis. Next follows the covenant agreed upon, entered into and signed by the same persons when the Church was gathered, which was on June 23, 1736.—Ed.]

THE THIRD, OR WEST PARISH CHURCH RECORDS.

BOOKS I AND II.

AT THE CLAPBOARD TREES.

All the records of this Church prior to 1879 have been destroyed by fire. It is sad to think of it, but the very valuable historical matter which these records contained, covering a period of nearly a century and a half, is lost forever. The following interesting description of these lost treasures has been prepared by the Rev. Calvin S. Locke of that church.—[ED.]

The records of the Church of the Third Parish in Dedham were formerly contained in two books. One had parchment covers, and its whole appearance was very antiquated. It contained the records of Rev. Andrew Tyler and Rev. Thomas Thacher, and possibly of their predecessor, Rev. Josiah Dwight. The second book was bound in boards, and its paper was poor. It contained the neatly kept records of Rev. John White, and those of his successors until the year 1879. In these books were noted the baptisms, marriages and funerals which occurred in the parish, and as it was then the custom to christen nearly all the children, and to have wedding and funeral services conducted by the minister, those books up to the time of the separation of the Baptist Society from that of the Third Parish must have included a nearly complete list of the births, marriages, and deaths in West Dedham. The destruction of these books when the Nahatan House was burned, May 28, 1879, leaves a gap in the history of the town which it is impossible to fill satisfactorily, and though it is of no use for us "to lock the stable door after the horse is stolen," our misfortune may serve as a hint to other churches to use the greatest care in preserving their records.

These books also contained records of admission to the church and dismissals from it, appointment of delegates to ordination and installation services and minutes of church business, which at times included discipline of members whose conduct was considered unworthy.

THE ANCIENT BURIAL PLACE OF DEDHAM.

THE EPITAPHS UPON THE TOMB STONES.

COPIED AND ARRANGED FOR THE DEDHAM HISTORICAL SOCIETY,

BY REV. CARLOS SLAFTER, A. M.

In every old Massachusetts town, among the localities of special interest, is the spot where the early inhabitants committed to the earth the bodies of their lamented dead. Consecrated anew year after year by the tears of love and sorrow, it becomes hallowed ground; and as we bend over the low headstone and decipher its quaint inscription, we are reminded of the affection which erected it, and which still commends it to our respect and care. We are told by the humblest stone that a loved one had died, and that loving ones survived who desired to honor, and preserve, the memory of the dead. It is indeed a brief story; but it is a story which we love to read, though its age may be reckoned in centuries. So our old cemetery is a record of human affection well fitted to improve the heart and stir the imagination. It is not necessarily a gloomy spot. It speaks rather of rest and peace after the labors and turmoil of life are ended.

We have endeavored to ascertain how early, and where, the original burial place of Dedham was located. The town records do not answer these questions directly, but they do enable us to form a definite opinion on the subject. Ezechiell Holliman, the original Baptist who baptised Roger Williams, is spoken of in the town records, under date of Dec. 31, 1636, as follows: "And for that Ezechiell Holliman hath felled one great Timber tree for clapboard, without his owne lott, contrary to an order made in that behalfe, therefore, he is fined to pay unto the collector, for the use of the towne, the sum of ten shillings." From this it is evident that Holliman had a lot in his possession as early as 1636. Now, in the grant to him, that lot is described as follows: "Twelve acres more or less as lyeth between the way (now Court street) leading from the Keye to the Pond towards the east and Nicholas Phillips towards the west, and butts upon the said way wynding towards the north, and the way leading to the burying place towards the south."

From this we see that in 1636 there was a "waye" leading to the burying place. This "waye" probably passed between where now stand the house of Mrs. Benjamin Adams and St. Paul's church, and also passed over the ground recently purchased by the town of Mrs. Adams and added to the cemetery.

Having thus located the road to the "burying place," we find the "burying place" itself by the following description of the lot granted to Nicholas Phillips: "Twelve acres more or less, as it lyeth betweene Ezechiell Holliman towards the east, & Lambert Genere towards the west. And butts upon Charles River towards the north & upon the Swampe & 'burying place towards the South.'" Thus it appears that the primitive "burying place" was south of Nicholas Phillips' lot, and was approached by a road south of Holliman's.

But Holliman's lot embraced the land on which now stand the Orthodox, the Unitarian, and the Episcopal churches; while Phillips' lot is now partly occupied by the county prison. Therefore we conclude that the ground first used for interments was a small, oblong piece, beginning near where the ministers' monument now stands, and extending some distance westerly. Such a lot would be south of the Phillips land, and would be approached by a "way" south of Holliman's. Why this place was chosen we are not informed, but it is a reasonable supposition that it was open land, perhaps an Indian cornfield, and therefore suitable and convenient for immediate use.

When was the first person buried in this ground? The earliest death mentioned in Dedham records occurred in 1637. But it seems improbable that a burial place should be located before anybody had died. When the first death occurred, then, the question of a place of burial would first present itself, and then the whole body of proprietors in the town would decide upon the appropriate spot. Probably the first year of the settlement, 1635, did not pass before some yielded to the hardships and casualties to which colonists in an unsubdued wilderness are exposed, and were buried in that ground.

It would be reasonable to assume that the death rate, especially among children, was large, on account of a lack of necessary care and comforts. Consequently it was soon apparent that the first little burial lot would be found inadequate to the wants of the town, and, in 1638, Joseph Kingsbury, who had come into possession of the lot of Ezechiell Holliman, and Nicholas Phillips exchanged, for other lands in the town, a portion of their land at the south end of their lots, to enlarge the accommodation for the dead.

After the building of the church, or about 1639, a "bearing way," one rod wide, was laid out where Bullard street now is, and led directly from the church, and entered the burying ground at its northwest corner. It is probable that the road leading to the south side of the burying ground was then, or soon afterwards, discontinued.

The boundaries of the burial place, thus enlarged, continued the same for about 175 years. They included an area of about one acre. For a period of one hundred years, this was the only place of burial in the town, and it is needless to say that some parts of it were dug over several times to furnish graves for successive generations. Where a stone was not set up, the place of interment was soon forgotten, and so received another occupant. I think we should be surprised to know how many bodies were buried in that acre of ground. Of course we never can know, but from the nature of things, several thousands have there found their last resting place, and their dust has been commingled more rudely than one would care to know.

Every one must feel that hereafter "The old burying ground" ought to be tenderly cared for, as the final resting place of many noble men and women. One after another, for nearly two hundred years, they were gathered to that little acre of ground, approaching it through that narrow "bearing-way," and, in most cases, conveyed thither by the strong and kindly arms of their neighbors. There let them rest undisturbed, and let not the graves of strangers invade any more the little space which they have so long occupied. It is to be remembered that in every foot of that soil is mingled the dust of those who by their labors changed this town from a savage wilderness to a spot where comfort and refinement rejoice to dwell. As the ashes of thousands are accumulated there, with no monuments to distinguish one from another, it is truly fitting that the most beautiful trees of the forest should weave a canopy over their common resting place, and that the unbroken turf, starred with the daisy and the buttercup, should symbolize their calm and honored repose.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH GROUNDS.

This diagram represents the old Burial Place, and is designed to aid one in finding the stones which bear the Epitaphs. The nineteen spaces represent divisions of the ground, which are called Ranges. The Roman numerals indicate where stones are set along the south side of the Burial Place, to show where the Ranges begin. The number of gravestones, or monuments, in each Range is shown by figures at the right side of the diagram. In the Special Index each name is followed by a Roman numeral and an Arabic number: these refer to its Range and Number in the Record, and also serve to show its approximate position in the Burial Place. The stones in each Range are numbered from south to north in the record; and although there are some irregularities in their position, it is hoped that a little patience will enable a person to find any one of them.

COBB. i, 1. Jonathan Holmes Cobb. Born July 8, 1799. Died March 12, 1882. Register of Probate Court from 1833 to 1879. Town Clerk from 1845 to 1875. Sophia Doggett, wife of Jonathan H. Cobb, born May 23, 1805, died January 13, 1878, aged 72 years, 7 months, and 21 days.

FAIRBANKS. i, 2. In memory of Mr. Ebenezer Fairbanks, who died Nov. 21, 1832. Aet. 75.

Friends nor physicians could not save, Nor can the grave confine it here,
This mortal body from the grave; When Christ doth call it to appear.

FAIRBANKS. i, 3. In memory of Mary, wife of Ebenezer Fairbanks, who died Jan. 7, 1843. Aet. 87. Erected by her children.

Though thou hast left us, mother, each kind deed,
And word, and thought of thine, shall with us live,
And though our hearts at thy departure bleed,
These to our souls a bright example give:
Like the ripe sheaf, when harvest time has come,
Mature in goodness, God has brought thee home.

FAIRBANKS. i, 4. Prudence Fairbanks died Mar. 20, 1871, aged 89 years.

FAIRBANKS. i, 5. In memory of Mrs. Prudence Fairbank, wife of Mr. Ebenezer Fairbank, who died Nov. 11th, 1815, aged 78.

My mother dear, do not lament, but know
God orders thee to stay and me to go.
Now learn with patience meekly to submit
To whatsoe'er God's wisdom judges best.
To say with humble Job, the Lord thinks fit:
Giving or taking, let his Name be blest.

I've paid the debt that all must pay,	Tho' cruel Death has conquered me
Tho awful to my view;	The victory is but small,
On frightful rocks where waters poured,	For I shall rise and live again,
And broken buildings flew.	And Death himself shall fall.

LEWIS. ii, 21. In memory of Capt. Samuel Lewis who died July 23, 1854, aged 66 years.

Here lies entombed beneath this mossy sod
An honest man, "the noblest work of God,"
In whom those beauties of a noble mind,
Faith and good works were happily combined:
A friend and comfort to the sick and poor,
Want never knocked unheeded at his door:
A tender husband, father, brother, friend,
He crowned his virtues with a pious end.

In life how peaceful moved this happy pair,
 How blessed in death released from mortal care.
 Ye angels o'er their dust your vigils keep.
 Calm be their slumbers undisturbed their sleep.
 And ye who tread in solemn silence near
 Repress the sigh, restrain the swelling tear.
 No more to wound, shall earthly sorrows fly,
 Eternal bliss awaits them in the sky.

Sons and daughters: Such a friend
For you on earth there lingers not ;
Well may you weep till life shall end.
Say, can her love be e'er forgot ?
By faith her heavenly march she led,
And onward pressed whate'er befell;
By faith she bowed her suffering head
And sweetly whispered, All is well.

THE THIRD PARISH CEMETERY

EPITAPHS PRIOR TO 1845.

COPIED FROM THE TOMBSTONES BY MR. JOHN W. WORTHINGTON.

The loss of the Church Records in this Parish increases the importance of the Cemetery inscriptions, for here we must look for record of deaths when the Town records fail to furnish the facts. It is a great comfort to see these grounds so well cared for. Everything about them so neat and tasteful, and not a small part of the credit is due to Mr. Daniel W. Parker, who for thirty years has had the care and superintendence of this Cemetery, and buried every person interred therein during all that period. The people of West Dedham have every reason to be proud of this spot, so dear to the memory of all of them. The following brief historical sketch of this Cemetery is taken, by permission, from a note to a printed sermon by Rev. Calvin S. Locke, preached Dec. 7, 1879. Subject: Other Men Have Labored.

The first land for this cemetery was half an acre purchased in 1752 of Nathan Kingsbury. In 1820, land was purchased of Sabine Baker to enlarge it towards the south. In 1843 one addition was made on the east by land bought of John and Joshua and Chloe Fisher, and in 1860 it was enlarged by a tract of land purchased of Joseph Fisher. In 1843 a joint fair was held by the Baptist and Unitarian societies, and the proceeds were used for building the fence of the cemetery. The Ladies' Benevolent Society, in addition to this, have expended $617.06 in the care and decoration of the cemetery. The Corporation of Proprietors was organized January 5th and July 9th, 1860, and the first appropriation made by the town for the cemetery was in 1868. As usual, there was, at the outset, great difference of opinion in respect to the location of the burying ground. When Rev. Mr. Tyler attempted to pacify two of his angry parishioners, one of them said: "I'll never be buried in that burying ground as long as I live and breathe." "Well," replied the other, "if God Almighty spares my life, I will."
